To avoid any misinterpretation, it should be borne in mind that these General Conditions apply to the relations regarding booking and purchasing air tickets and other associated services offered by „SOF Connect”AD as an intermediary. The carriage conditions agreed, including but not limited to penalty fees for changes to a reservation, baggage allowance, cancellation of air tickets, etc., as well as the conditions for using the relevant service are subject to the specific tariff conditions and the requirements of the air carrier and the supplier. Customers are informed about the specific conditions either by the ticket sales agent before the purchase of the ticket and/or the associated product, or from the website of the respective service supplier and after payment of the value of the service, the same is considered notified of all conditions related to its provision.

For the purposes of these the General Conditions:

Customer is the person purchasing an airline ticket and/or other associated service from „SOF Connect”AD that sells the airline ticket and/or the other associated service in the name and for the account of the supplier.

Supplier is the organization and/or the company providing the carriage service and/or another associated service.

IATA – International Air Transport Association

Low-Cost Airlines – also known as Low Cost Carriers (LCC). The IATA General Conditions of Carriage do not apply to them. Those airlines differ from all other airlines with the special prices they offer for most of their flights, but also they have specific conditions related to the baggage allowance, the ways of payment, the options for changes and other details of the already issued ticket.

BSP (Billing and Settlement Plan) – a billing system designed to facilitate the flow of funds between the airlines and the travel agencies.

Using the airline ticket reservation system, entering their personal data and confirming their reservations, the customers agree with the General Conditions described below that apply to reservations made at a company office, by phone, e-mail or via the online reservation system of „SOF Connect”AD.

From that moment on the Users authorize „SOF Connect”AD to retain and use the personal data entered by them for purposes related to the further processing of the reservation and issuing tickets as well as other associated services and documents.

Customers also declare the reliability of the provided information.

1. Reservation

In case the reservation is made by phone and/or e-mail, „SOF Connect”AD will send to the e-mail provided by Customers the booking information together with the terms of payment and the tariff conditions. Customers are obliged to confirm on the same day, but not later than 5:00 p.m., the accuracy of the reservation data (names, travel dates, destination). In case Customers are unable to provide an e-mail address, „SOF Connect”AD shall have no liability for the accuracy of the provided data (names, travel dates, destination).

„SOF Connect”AD maintains a reservation system which can be used by customers to book airline ticket/tickets.

Making reservation neither guarantees issuing airline tickets, nor obliges customers to make payment in case they cancel the reservation before the airline tickets are issued.

Reservations can be changed, amended or cancelled free of charge according to customers' wishes until the payment of the airline tickets, only on condition that there are available seats for the desired changes. After payment and issuing tickets, all changes and cancellations are subject to the specific tariff conditions of the airlines.

Unlike traditional airlines, low-cost airlines issue tickets automatically and immediately upon customers' payment. They do not provide a "reservation" period when customers can make changes, cancel flights and tickets cannot be cancelled. The amounts paid for the tickets are absolutely non-refundable.

Some tariffs, usually concerning promotional, seasonal and other special offers, are not subject to any changes and recovery of amounts after issuing the ticket.

The main cancellation and changes conditions are set out in section "Booking Conditions", at Basket webpage of the reservation process – before finishing the process, as well as at the page and the e-mail confirming your reservation sent to the customer to the e-mail address provided at the time of reservation.

Customers can receive detailed information via e-mail or over the phone about the specific tariff conditions of their reservations before issuing the ticket or after that.

In rare cases, the flights or prices booked online may not be confirmed by the airline/ airlines. In such cases, our employees will contact customers as soon as possible to inform them about the impossibility of issuing airline tickets for the selected flight and/or price and will offer alternative options that can be confirmed at that moment.

2. Information provided upon reservation

Customers have to provide and/or enter the entire information required from them in an accurate and reliable manner. „SOF Connect”AD shall not be liable if customers or their companions cannot use the booked and paid services (airline ticket and/or others) due to inaccurately entered data (passenger name, date of birth, contact details, etc.).

Standard communication with customers is carried out electronically and „SOF Connect”AD takes no responsibility if customers fail to read or to receive the information necessary for their reservation and/or ticket due to inaccurately entered e-mail address, anti-spam or other settings of the e-mail address provided upon reservation.

Furthermore, it is customers' obligation to provide „SOF Connect”AD with telephone numbers at which they can be contacted before and after the beginning of their journey.

3. Fares

Airline ticket fares at the office or in „SOF Connect”AD's online reservation system are the final amounts for all tickets of the selected number of passengers and include the price of the airline ticket/tickets, service fee and all airport charges, security charges, fuel charges, etc. that were announced in advance in the reservation process. Low-cost airlines' ticket fares include also all additional (beyond the ticket price, airport charges, security charges, fuel charges, etc.) payments for issuing the tickets determined as such by those airlines.

Some airlines may have additional fees (handling fee, baggage fee, payment fee, validation fee, etc.) that will be displayed after customers choose a flight.

4. Additional fees

„SOF Connect”AD has no additional fees above the airline's total fare announced in the reservation. Exceptions are countries where airport charges are paid directly to the airport immediately prior departure. In case your reservation includes such countries, you will be notified by e-mail.

The price does not include fees for additional services that customers might desire to add to their reservation against additional payment. Such fees may include checked baggage fee, seat reservation fee, meal on board fee, etc.

Baggage fee

As a result of the newly introduced, after 2014, baggage rules of the majority of traditional airlines, as a general rule the airline tickets do not include checked baggage anymore. When such baggage is not included, it can be added at a later stage by „SOF Connect”AD’s employee upon customer’s request and against the additional payment of fixed prices announced by the airline for the different tariffs.

Information on whether or not such baggage is included in the price is provided by „SOF Connect”AD before the reservation is finished – at section “Field details”, page: “Basket” of the reservation system; and after the reservation is finished – at the confirmation page and in the confirmation e-mail which customers receive at the provided e-mail address.

It is customers’ sole responsibility to check and find out what baggage is included in the ticket fare for the booked flights before continuing their reservation. „SOF Connect”AD is not liable for any failures of customers, before paying the tickets, to acquaint themselves with the services (baggage, etc.) included in the airline tickets they booked and any additional fees that they will have to pay later, in case they need some services not included in the booked or already issued airline tickets.

5. Payment conditions

When purchasing airline tickets of traditional air carriers, customers have to make the payment within the time period specified in the confirmation of the reservation which can be seen at the final step of the reservation process, as well as in the e-mail received at the provided e-mail address.

In some cases the time period for payment and issuing airline ticket/tickets can be changed (and become shorter) by the airline after booking confirmation. In such cases „SOF Connect”AD shall notify by phone or electronically customers of the shorter payment period. „SOF Connect”AD has no influence on those changes and customers, in case they desire to purchase their ticket/tickets at the initially booked price, will have to make the payment within the specified new time period.

When purchasing airline tickets of low-cost air carriers, customers have to make the payment at the time of reservation with a bank card or in cash at the ticket sales offices of „SOF Connect”AD.

5.1 Payment can be made as follows:

A. Payment via bank transfer:

The entire amount due for the airline tickets including all applicable charges has to be transferred to the bank account of „SOF Connect”AD at UNICREDIT BULBANK AD, Sofia 1000, Square Sveta Nedelya 7.

Bank details are:

IBAN BGN: BG27UNCR70001524250115

Customers have to notify „SOF Connect”AD of the payment sending a copy of the payment order to e-mail: ticketdesk@sof-connect.com (from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., on business days only). Sending the payment order does not serve as a sufficient basis for issuing airline tickets, but it is necessary for confirming customers’ intention of purchasing the booked tickets.

Upon bank transfer for booked airline tickets, the entire amount due for them, together with all included charges and the handling fee, needs to be received at „SOF Connect”AD’s bank account, in order for the airline tickets to be considered paid within the payment period and „SOF Connect”AD’s employees to be able to issue them before the cancellation of the reservation.

Customers take sole responsibility for making sure whether the bank transfer they made is received at the bank account of „SOF Connect”AD within the specified time period for payment.

In case customers send the amount for the tickets, but it fails to reach the bank account of „SOF Connect”AD within the specified time period, their reservation will be cancelled and they will lose the right to receive the airline tickets at the initially specified price.

In case the reservation can be renewed at the same price, their tickets will be issued once the payment is received at the bank account of „SOF Connect”AD.

In case the reservation cannot be renewed at a price corresponding to the amount sent by customers, they have to choose whether they want „SOF Connect”AD to return their payment to their accounts or to make a new reservation at the new higher price for which they must pay the price difference, having in mind that if paying via bank transfer, the same conditions described herein for bank transfer will be valid, and the above should be requested in writing via e-mail.

Such type of payment is not possible for purchasing low-cost airline tickets.

B. Payment at office of „SOF Connect”AD:

Customers can pay and receive the booked ticket/tickets at the ticket sales office of „SOF Connect”AD, but not later than the specified payment period.

The contact details of „SOF Connect”AD AD’s offices can be found at the company web site — www.sof-connect.com.

6. Cancellation of booked services

“Cancellation of booked services” shall mean cancellation of booked journey with paid and issued airline ticket or tickets. Each ticket has specific conditions and requirements with respect to changes or cancellations determined by the respective airline and subject to the respective tariff (basic ticket fare).

Ticket cancellation can be made only at the office where the ticket was paid and issued and only in case that the tariff conditions allow refund of the ticket fare, „SOF Connect”AD will refund it to customers after authorization from the airline, in the time period determined by the airline and after charging and deducting an administrative handling fee.

The refund of the remaining part of the amount to be recovered to customers is made also to the person who made the ticket payment and as follows:

- for payment received via bank transfer or bank card – via bank transfer to the bank account provided by the payer in a written request and
- for payments made in cash – via bank transfer to the bank account provided by the payer in a written request, in cash at the ticket sales desk or in cash at the cash desk of „SOF Connect”AD, 1 “Christopher Columbus” Blvd., administration at “Departures” building, Terminal 1.

Upon refunding received amount in euro to customer’s bank account in euro, all bank commissions are charged to the recipient (the customer).

7. Visas and travel documents

Customers and all passengers, for whom they booked tickets, are obliged to make sure that they possess all travel documents and that they are in order and to check all requirements for passport/ID, visas and other documents for all destinations (initial, final, transit, etc.) on the route of their journey, including Bulgaria, if it is part of it. „SOF Connect”AD takes no responsibility in case any of the passengers faces obstacles at any point of the journey due to inadequacy, incorrectness, non-validity or lack of any required document.

8. Price guarantee

All airlines reserve the right to change the prices of airline tickets prior to their full payment and issuing. In such cases „SOF Connect”AD shall be obliged to notify customers in time, but it takes no responsibility for the price difference announced by the airline.

9. General conditions of carriage

Customers are subject to all specific conditions and regulations for carriage of passengers of the respective air carrier. All claims and requests related to problems concerning the journey of the customers or their baggage shall be submitted to the respective airline.

10. Additional provisions

Customers shall be obliged to check, no later than 72 hours prior to the booked flight, whether the air carrier made changes to the initially announced hour of departure or the route.

Customers shall be obliged to acquaint themselves in advance with the political situation in the country of their destination. „SOF Connect”AD takes no responsibility for emergency situations, such as natural disasters, disturbances, strikes, war actions or other similar circumstances in the respective country which might cause damages to the Users.

Payments are made in cash (in euro or Bulgarian leva) via wire transfer to the bank accounts of „SOF Connect”AD (in euro or Bulgarian leva) or via bank debit/credit card.

Upon the purchase of airline ticket and/or associated service, Customers agree to these General Conditions and the General Conditions of the airline and/or the supplier.

In its capacity as an intermediary between Customer and the airline, „SOF Connect”AD takes no responsibility for any damages caused by postponed or cancelled flights due to the fault of the airline or the Users, as well as other exceptional circumstances.
